

Transitional Kindergarten

Daily Counting

Purpose:

- To answer the question “how many” by counting
- To solve real world problems

Directions:

- Another person needs to read the questions to the child.
- Allow the child to solve the problem on their own by counting.
- Another person can help the child write the answers.

	Questions	Write the Number	Compare
1.	How many people are in your home?		Which has more? (circle the answer) people pets
	How many pets are in your home?
2.	How many tables are in your home?		Which has more? (circle the answer) tables chairs
	How many chairs are in your home?
3.	How many windows are in your home?		Which has more? (circle the answer) windows doors
	How many doors are in your home?

4.	How many bowls are in your home?		Which has more? (circle the answer) bowls plates
	How many plates are in your home?
5.	How many spoons are in your home?		Which has more? (circle the answer) spoons forks
	How many forks are in your home?
6.	How many sisters do you have?		Which has less? (circle the answer) sisters brothers
	How many brothers do you have?
7.	How many shoes do you have?		Which has less? (circle the answer) shoes socks
	How many socks do you have?
8.	How many shirts do you have?		Which has less? (circle the answer) shirts pants
	How many pants do you have?

9.	How many books do you have?		Which has less? (circle the answer) books markers
	How many markers do you have?
10.	How many stuffed animals do you have?		Which has less? (circle the answer) stuffed animals balls
	How many balls do you have?		