Time Commitment & Availability

The anticipated total time commitment is approximately 21 hours between January and May 2027, including application file review, committee meetings, and interviews.

All committee members are asked to attend the two committee-wide meetings, as well as the interview dates for their assigned academic division only. You will not be expected to attend interviews conducted by the other divisional committees.

All meetings will be held online, and all times listed are in Eastern Time (ET).

Please review the dates below before applying to ensure you are available for these commitments.
