

World History 10 Storyboard
Grade 10

Course Name	World History 10
Unit Title	Team Building and Collaboration	Our First Civilizations – How People Began to Shape the World	Foundations of Early Civilizations: Culture, Beliefs, and Achievements	Expanding Connections – Trade, Islam, and Innovation
Unit Duration	1 Week	3 Weeks	4 Weeks	8 Weeks
Image Cue	This week we will  Get to know each other, set goals,  and learn class expectations while starting to think like historians   and explore world history		Empires, Beliefs, and Big Ideas - The Rise of Civilization
Unit Focus	Get to know each other, set goals, and learn class expectations while starting to think like historians and explore world history.	Learn about the beginnings of human society, including early migration, farming, and ancient civilizations like Mesopotamia, Egypt, the Phoenicians, and Persians, and how geography and new ideas shaped them.	Explore the growth of classical empires like Greece, Rome, Maurya, and Gupta, and how their ideas, laws, leaders, and cultural achievements shaped government, society, identity, and left a lasting legacy.	Learn about the spread of Islam, the Silk Road, and the Islamic Golden Age, exploring how trade and interactions spread culture and built powerful empires.

Course Name	World History 12
Unit Title	Explorers, Empires, and Encounters	Machines, Money, and Movements – A Changing World	Conflict, Change, and the Modern World
Unit Duration	5 Weeks	5 Weeks	6 Weeks
Image Cue
Unit Focus	Study the Age of Exploration, the Columbian Exchange, and the rise of the Ottoman, Safavid, and Mughal empires, focusing on how exploration changed global trade, culture, and belief systems.	Explore the Industrial Revolution, social change, and global imperialism, as students analyze the causes and effects of industrialization and colonialism, including responses and reforms in the Muslim world.	Examine 20th-century events such as World War I, the Cold War, anti-colonial movements, and globalization, focusing on how they reshaped nations, ideas, and global relationships, with attention to modern Muslim contributions.