Creators:

JohnnyRaZeR [has a clone]

Mogswamp [stopped posting, not able to be infiltrated, firewall]

RoyalPear

Joe Caine[too cool to be cloned]

Phaleur

Danno Cal Drawings [has a clone with purple skin and black eyes]

knsplash [stopped posting, not able to be infiltrated, firewall]

Bundun [has a clone with glasses]

Them receiving the emails:

[All of them got an email from cloneVPN offering 20,000, they have to click a link to be sponsored, they are all on unlisted videos and on different channels]

Jonny-Danno

Danno-Royal

Royal-Jonny [at the end of vid it repeated what he said and then glitched to a black screen, there was a voice that said, "this ones a failure, we're out of time, we need to use the prototype" then it glitched back to show a poorly drawn YouTube profile.]

Phaleur-BunDun [half way through he glitches, the screen goes black and there is a loud scream, when he is back on screen the lights are blue he starts distorting and glitching and then disappears in the end. also, rabbit]

BunDun-Phaleur [he gets the email, calls someone and gets up to look outside to viewer right, on the left side there is a GIItCh where someone walks into frame looking like him with shades and a hat on looks at the camera then goes under the desk]

Observations:

- Most of them got an email and downloaded the 'cloneVPN' and got hacked!
- Danno's bunny mascot seems more aware than everyone else, seeming confused every time either someone enters his video or, like in one of Joe's videos, he comes up in the video, looks around for a moment before sliding out as the video continues.
- Adding onto this theory, in one of Royal's recent videos, Danno's mascot appears and exclaims "it happened again!"
- Joe Caine also seems slightly aware and warns viewers
- Mogswamp and knsplash may start being more relevant soon...
- Joe Cain has not opened the email, but is somehow being infiltrated
- In the livestream, Johnny mentions the video on Phaleur's channel, saying how he was self-aware, which could mean that clone Johnny is doing the livestream and is trying to do a cover up

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/l4eH6NZq4W8> Danno [Phaeular glitches into the background and makes the music change then glitches back to normal, a few seconds later Jonny appears and continues what Danno was saying, then it glitches back to the normal video]

<https://youtube.com/shorts/i0w1p5RLN3o?feature=share> Joe Cain [in Joe's recent short, his video glitches when Danno's video plays and blue Riggy shows up and looks confused. One of Royal's videos plays and the camera glitches again. When Joe starts talking, his voice glitches and Royal finishes his sentence before he gets carried away. “what an idiot, he should probably just stop making content and jump off-“ he gets cut of and briefly the poorly drawn picture of his profile is shown before it goes back to Joe talking, talking about how his PC is lagging also. The video ends while Joe's voice is still glitching]

<https://youtube.com/shorts/-FlvTPrxIRs?feature=share> Danno [in his recent short, we see that Riggy is now replaced by the clone version (the purple one) of himself. While the video plays out, there's blue spray paint in the background with messages on it “please” and “help me”, meaning that the real Riggy is still alive. After those messages, there's text at the bottom in a glitchy font saying “I'm in control now” and “they can't hear you”, showing that clone Riggy is aware that real Riggy is still alive (side note, the background music is slightly slowed down but i don't think that means anything, i just thought it was interesting)]

All the shorts are about promoting Clone VPN since they all have the same script. The only ones that seem to stand out the most are Bundun and Danno because they both reference the real people before the clones take over the rest of the video

Jonny RaZeR Livestream:

LOOOOORE

- CloneVPN sent him a virus protector thing
- Denies being a clone
- Camera glitches and voice from the unlisted videos starts talking (they say something about “time is ticking”, meaning that there’s a time limit)
- He doesn't have any idea about what happened.
- Riggy (Danno's character) donates and says “he’s completely safe don’t worry :)”
- Joe Cain is watching the stream
- Riggy is in chat
- They are all aware of the QR codes
- Shorts logo glitches in and the same voice starts talking again (...“the end is soon”)
- It glitched again and the voice said “the clone has been dispatched” he is going to be replaced soon
- JOHNNY F**KING DIED—
- The clone was annoyed about the fact it was a live.
- He is not being very subtle about being a clone
