

The Witch was quite furious with the bite marks everywhere in her house.
" Why'd you leave bite marks everywhere in my house! " Shouted the witch
" Sorry, we never knew you lived here " Pleaded Hansel and Gretal for mercy.
With no pace because of her age, she walked with such a slow pace as if she was a snail. The witch was around 5'5 to 5'7. Her hobbies are luring innocent children that are lost in the woods into her home, eating children and practicing witchcraft. The witch was quite cranky and easy for her to get mad at people. We were told by our mother that we were going somewhere but we fell asleep and now we're here.

The witch took Hansel and Gretal inside her house. Hansel got put in a cage with food being served to him. Hansel had been fed too much to the point where he was too obese.

" Come here Hansel, it's time. " Said the witch.

It was so hard for Hansel to walk, he could barely see his toes. He was walking to the oven but the witch had been tricked. They chunked the witch in the oven and left.
