Write down a relationship/community/area of your life where you have some influence...

Describe your current leadership style in this area of influence?

How do you think God would act if he were in charge of this area of influence?

Choose one or two aspects of God's character and decide specifically how you are going to reflect them this week...

PRAYER...

God, help me to reflect more of your _____ this week

Help me to leverage my influence...for your influence

To use my power...to showcase your power

To use my connections...to connect people to you

When people look at me, let them see you

God, use these areas of influence

Use my kingdoms as a tool to establish your rule here on earth

God, when it comes to the areas of influence in my life, I say...

You are in charge
