Art Activisms

This is the list of art activist projects you modify to accommodate the intersectional identities you draw in class together with your team's own intersectional identities. Remember that this is the SECOND most important element of the assignment, after your intersectional analysis, WHICH IS THE MOST IMPORTANT PIECE! – creativity and innovation in the intersectional analysis and care with understanding this part is worth the most for your grade (even though we dislike putting it that way: after all the learning is what matters most, not the grade).

1. "My Calling Card" by Adrian Piper http://performanceartist.com/adrian-piper-1970-1979/
2. The Clothesline Project http://www.clotheslineproject.org/
3. Ella's Daughters Social Justice Quilt http://www.ellasdaughters.org/get-involved/projects/99-the-ellas-daughters-social-justice-quilt-project
4. LA Poverty Department
   http://lapovertydept.org/
5. Gran Fury
   http://www.nytimes.com/2003/12/07/magazine/when-political-art-mattered.html
   http://www.nypl.org/sites/default/files/archivalcollections/pdf/granfury_0.pdf

6. A Window Between Worlds
   www.awbw.org

7. Wall of Femmes
   www.walloffemmes.org

8. Barefoot Artists
   www.barefootartists.org

9. AIDS Memorial Quilt and other Memorial Quilts http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/NAMES_Project_AIDS_Memorial_Quilt

10. Knitted Knockers
    www.theknittingexperience.com/knitted_knockers_program/

11. The Farmworkers' Theatre http://www.elteatrocompesino.com/

12. Citywide Murals in Los Angeles by Judith Francisca Baca http://racc.org/public.art/mural-program

13. The "Great Wall of Los Angeles" http://bomoco.com/greatwall/

14. Mural Arts Program in Philadelphia http://muralarts.org/

15. WACK! Art and the Feminist Revolution http://www.moca.org/wack/

16. Gender EDGE genderedge.blogspot.com

17. B Media Collective bmediacollective.org

18. Bread and Puppet Theater

19. The Beehive Design Collective beehivecollective.org