

Graphic Organizer

Read Lob's Girl. What is the theme of Lob's Girl? Write an essay that describes this theme.

Cite evidence from this text and your own experience in your essay. Use your graphic organizer to guide your writing.

Time to Plan

Paragraph 1 Introduction	Background information or Summary of Story or article: "Lob's Girl" is a short story set in Cornwall, a fishing town located in southeast England. The main character is a young girl named Sandy. She lives in Cornwall with her father and mother, and her three siblings. The story is about the loyalty and friendship of a dog named Lob. Lob was on vacation with his owner when he met Sandy. Lob returns to his own home, but walks twice all across England to return to Sandy. Finally, Sandy adopts him and they are very good friends. Sandy is in an accident and is hospitalized and Lob finds his way to the hospital to see her. The story ends with a message that Lob died in the accident and was buried in the ocean. The story leaves you wondering what really happened. Restate Question as a Thesis Statement: Throughout the story "Lob's Girl" I believe that loyalty displayed through the love of Sandy and Lob changed their lives forever. Main Idea #1: Lob and Sandy fall in love. Main Idea #2: Lob will do anything to be with Sandy Main Idea #3: Lob saves Sandy's life.
Paragraph 2 Main Idea #1	Topic Sentence: When Lob and Sandy met it was love at first sight. (Main Idea 1) Text Evidence: According to the text, when Lob first met Sandy he pounced on her and could not stop licking her face. Explanation: When dogs lick a person's face this is a form of endearment. Some say that this is how dogs give kisses. Text Evidence: The author states that Sandy thought that Lob was beautiful and she played with him all day long.

	Explanation: Sandy was sad when she had to leave Lob, she knew she may never see him again because his owner was there on vacation. She glanced back at him many times as she walked away from him for what she thought was the last time.
Paragraph 3 Main Idea #2	Topic Sentence: Even though Sandy thought she saw Lob for the last time, Lob knew in his mind he would do whatever it would take to make it back to his soulmate. (Main Idea 2) Text Evidence: The text explains, "The whole family was playing cards by the fire in the front room after supper when there was a loud thump and a crash of china in the kitchen." Explanation: Lob had found Sandy again and plastered her with kisses. Lob had somehow found his way to Sandy's house from his vacation house. Sandy's dad returned Lob to his owner and asked Sandy not to play with him again at the beach, but Sandy just couldn't help herself, the two could not stay away from each other. Text Evidence: From the reading I know that there was a crash from the kitchen and Lob appeared again jumping on Sandy giving her kisses. Lob had walked the whole way from Liverpool which was 400 miles. This happened not once but twice! Explanation: Sandy and Lob just couldn't be kept apart. Lob's owner tried to take him back and realized that Lob just wanted to be with Sandy and her family. From that day on Lob was Sandy's dog.
Paragraph 4 Main Idea #3	Topic Sentence: The years passed and Sandy and Lob remained loyal to each other even after a tragic accident happened one day. (Main Idea 3) Text Evidence: The text says, "That dog has walked twenty miles from St. Killan to get to my granddaughter. Heaven knows how he knew she was here, but it's plain he knows. That dog has walked the length of England—twice—to be with that girl, and you think you can keep him out?" Explanation: When Sandy's grandmother went to the hospital to see her, who does she find waiting outside the door but Lob. With the hope that seeing Lob would make Sandy wake up, her grandmother convinces the doctor to let Lob into the hospital to see Sandy. Text Evidence: The author explains, at the sound of Lob's whine Sandy stirred just a little. She sighed and moved her head and opened her eyes and said his name. She reached her hand down and pet Lob one last time before she fell back asleep. Explanation: Having Lob by her side was just what Sandy needed. But Sandy's parents were in shock because Lob had died at the accident and had been buried at sea.

Paragraph 5 Conclusion	Restate thesis statement: Throughout the story "Lob's Girl" I believe that loyalty displayed through the love of Sandy and Lob changed their lives forever. Summarize Main Idea #1: When Lob and Sandy met it was love at first sight. After they first met on the beach they couldn't stop thinking about each other. Summarize Main Idea #2: When Lob returned home after vacation, he knew in his mind he would do whatever it would take to make it back to his soulmate. He walked 400 miles twice to get to Sandy! Summarize Main Idea #3: The years passed and Sandy and Lob remained loyal to each other even after a tragic accident happened one day Lob still loyally made his way back to Sandy. Make the reader think: Although Lob was never seen again, he was loyal to Sandy until the very end. What do you think happened to Lob?

Citing Text Evidence Sentence Starters

- Based on what I read
- The author states
 - In paragraph
 - One example from the text
- According to the text
 - The text explicitly states
- From the reading, I know that
 - For instance in the text