By ordering a commission you agree to these terms of service!

Copyright & Use

I retain full copyright to my artwork. You may not use the artwork for commercial purposes, copy, trace, or remove my signature without prior written consent. Non-commercial uses (such as profile pictures, DnD, roleplay, etc.) are allowed. You may not attempt to have my final artwork removed from any social medias.

You may only edit Ko-Fi sketch commissions to colour them (if it's your piece).

You may not use my art in any form of AI work or mint it as an NFT.

Unauthorised use of my artwork for AI training, NFTs, or any blockchain-related technology without my consent will result in legal action under copyright law.

Payment Process

Payments must be made via PayPal, bank transfer (if arranged), or Ko-Fi only. You may pay upfront or split 50/50 before I start. No refunds will be given once I begin the commission. Prices may vary depending on the scope, and additional charges may apply for complex designs or short deadlines.

Art will only be delivered upon full payment. Delays in payment may result in a suspension of work. Send the payment via my invoice to my paypal and add in notes your Twitter/insta @ or email (whatever we are using to communicate)

I kindly accept tips, only if you want to please!

Art Process

After we've discussed the commission and you've submitted the form, I'll send a Paypal invoice or PayPal link. You may pay in full upfront or split 50/50 (depending on what we've agreed).

I'll begin the piece and send WIPs (work-in-progress) for feedback. You can request changes at each stage. Minor revisions are included, but major changes may incur additional fees.

Upon completion, I'll deliver the high-resolution images via Google Drive.

Feel free to check in if it seems like progress is slow, but keep in mind that commissions can take up to a month, unless we've specifically agreed on a deadline. For rush work, additional fees may apply.

Artwork Genres I Specialise In

I work best with:

- Fantasy, magical genres
- Gothic, horror
- Gore / NSFW
- Game OCs/ fanart (TES, DnD, WoW, etc.)
- Character, creature, prop, environment design
- Monster girls/boys/Agender

I Will Not Draw:

- Extreme Fetish art
- Anything illegal

Please familiarise yourself with my art style before commissioning me. If your idea is significantly different from what I usually draw, it's likely I'm not the best fit.

Termination of Commission

Any act of rudeness or harassment will result in immediate cancellation of the commission. No refund will be given, and I retain all rights to the artwork up to that point.

Legal Jurisdiction

By commissioning me, you agree to these terms, and you acknowledge that these terms may be updated as needed. These terms and any disputes arising under them will be governed by the laws of the United Kingdom.

With that all out of the way, I am excited to work on your commission!

Thank you

Skele x
