We sit side by side We talk about our books. We sometimes ask questions.	We sit side by side or knee to knee with books in the middle. We get started right away taking turns talking and listening. We ask one or two questions.	We sit side by side or knee to knee with books in the middle. We get started right away taking turns talking and listening. We ask each other questions or say comments to help each other add more. Keep going... Remember to... Try again... We use a chart or tool to help us talk about our books.	We sit side by side or knee to knee with books in the middle. We take turns talking and listening, building off of each other's ideas. We ask questions or say comments to help each other say more. Keep going... Remember to... Try again... We use charts and tools to help each other talk about our books. We share our reading goals.
