

What are my skills?

I have expertise in server configuration, marketing, java programming, minecraft plugins, discord setups, and discord bot developing.

What have I done?

These are the places I'm currently working at:

~~I'm a lead administrator at the Delostaria Network~~ (POSTPONED INDEFINITELY)

~~I'm also currently the head of management in an unnamed upcoming factions server (paid position)~~ (DISCONTINUED)

These are my freelance projects:

My discord bots include a commission bot, alt-shop bot, and moderation bot.

Personal projects:
