The Corunna Swim and Dive team swam their last home meet last night against Swartz Creek Flushing. The team suffered a setback losing one of their swimmers, but the team rallied to keep it close all the way until the end before falling in the final relay. The final score was 92 to 88. Noah McKinney and Austin Sweet teamed up to go 1-2 in diving. The 200 free relay team of Braden Hartsuff, Noah McKinney, Clark Cody, and Payton Chandler placed 1st. The 200 Medley Team of Nellis, Meyer, Golab, and McKinney placed 2nd. Payton Chandler took two second place finishes in the 200 free and 500 free. Earle Hansen took 2nd place in the 50 free, Noah McKinney took 2nd place in the 100 free, and Ezra Nellis took a 2nd place finish in the 100 Backstroke. The Cavs head to Brandon next week to try and rebound from their first loss. Just remember, it isn't luck, it is just swimming.
