

ALWAYS PLOTTING SOMETHING

A Poem for a Poet

This gardener of literature
doesn't just read,
he unearths the story.
Digging beneath the surface of a printed page,
he sees how each literary seed is planted to harvest true meaning.
He finds beauty and wisdom in The Word.

This passionate writer shares verses from his humble heart, allowing himself to be vulnerable.
Expressing emotions through empathy,
he designs stained-glass window poetry, arranging colors into eloquent mosaics—
the moments that connect us all.

This vocal leader
offers opinions freely and respectfully, reflecting deeply and maturely.
He inquires intelligently, inspiring others to join in his chorus
or sing their own melody.
He believes one's unique truth can help harmonize a world where every voice,
 every story
 matters.

This outstanding writer, thinker, and discussion leader has earned the Anne G. Gibb Award for Excellence in English. We look forward to hearing of much more success to come from our graduating poet, Alex Morfogen.
