Game Highlights/Comments

Osage Indians Drop Defensive Battle to Crocker Lions, 3–0

The Osage Varsity Indians came up just short in a tightly contested, low-scoring matchup Saturday, falling 3–0 to the visiting Crocker Lions in a game that featured strong pitching and missed opportunities for both teams.

Junior pitcher Christopher Nicholson set the tone early for Osage, striking out five batters over three scoreless innings while allowing no hits. He was backed by steady defense from the outfield, including multiple flyouts snagged by right fielder Kaden Stoufer.

The Lions broke the scoreless tie in the fifth, capitalizing on a fielding error that allowed the first run of the game to cross. A balk in the sixth, followed by a single and a double steal, gave Crocker two more insurance runs.
