

Jonathan Gruber

Jon, his wife Lara, and their boys Ethan and Isaac have been members of Temple Sinai since moving to Summit in 2020. They are grateful to have experienced many parts of the vibrant Sinai community, from the ECEP to the Religious School to Shabbat and High Holiday services. Jon co-chaired the launch of the ECEP Endowment Fund and is excited to contribute in new ways as a member of the Board.

Jon has spent the past decade at Einhorn Collaborative, a foundation that invests nationally in efforts to strengthen social connection and address our growing "us versus them" divisions. He has served on several philanthropic and nonprofit boards. Prior to his time in philanthropy, Jon's career spanned teaching, nonprofit work, and management consulting.
