

OKAY! HERE'S YOUR CHARACTER SKELETONS! EVERY CHARACTER NEEDS ONE!
Copy and paste the form, then plug in the information for your own ORIGINAL character.

Writer: (YOUR name goes here.)

Name: (THEIR name goes here.)

Age: (We like variety in the ages. A ton of 17-year-olds running around is not that fun.)

Gender: (We like a relatively even balance. If there's a bajillion girls, write a man!)

Physical appearance: (Please include: Height, basic body build, hair color, eye color, and any other distinguishing features, such as freckles or big ears or a scar. Please be REALISTIC and try not to be CHEESY.)

Bio: (Usually includes any important details from the character's past, a description of their personality, and any other information you want everyone to know.)

Magic: (Briefly describe your power. Keep in mind bullet point number 3, up above! You can't have an all-powerful character! A good policy is this: Whatever strengths your character has, they should have an equally powerful weakness, which doesn't have to be associated at all with their magic. Maybe they're messed up in the head or they can't talk to people or their magic is painful to use or something. Be creative and have fun!)
