Year II, Semester 1

1. Translate into Romanian:

The establishment of the Office is necessary for the protection of the EU's financial interests. Other similar bodies such as OLAF (the European Anti-Fraud Office) and Eurojust (the European Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation) and Europol (the European Police Office) do not conduct criminal investigations or prosecute fraud cases. Another reason is the fragmentation of national law enforcement in the Member States, which do not always take action in issues regarding the EU budget. A third reason is the low recovery rate of amounts lost to fraud, as fraudsters base on the lack of the united law enforcement in the EU, and they play on their chances to keep the money.

Translate into Romanian:

"I have never been arrested or convicted. I do not have a criminal record. It is the first time that I have made a deposition, and I have never been cited as a witness to a case."

"The neighbours moved there ten years ago. They built a big house, in a large yard, and both of them, husband and wife, have their own cars. They also have a van which they use occasionally, to bring home construction materials, furniture, anything that would not fit in the other cars."

"What I can complain about is the traffic around the house, people drive into their yard, or park their cars in the street. Sometimes it is too noisy. I wake up at night when I hear cars passing too often on a usually silent street. I saw people coming and going all the time. "

"Two weeks ago, three patrol cars pulled in front of their house. The police entered the yard and made it straight for the front door. I could hear people speaking, but could not distinguish what they were actually saying. I saw the police asking the neighbours to get in the patrol cars and they left. The next day, they knocked at my door and started asking questions. I had no idea what was going on."
