

Dear Lauren,

You've probably heard me talk about Quilting for Community (Q4C)—maybe more than once. It started as a small idea and has grown into something pretty special: a place where people of all ages and backgrounds come together to sew, learn, create, and connect.

We've taught hundreds of people how to quilt—many of whom never thought they'd thread a needle, let alone finish a quilt of their own. Some come to learn a skill. Some come to heal. Some come to belong.

Right now, we're working hard to raise $5,000 through our summer fundraiser, Boots & Bobbins, to keep all this going. It's part of our bigger goal of $40,000 by the end of the year, and we need every bit of help to get there.

Here's how you can support:

- Make a donation of any size
- Share this with someone you think would love what we're doing
- Invite a friend to our fundraiser on August 17 at The Cowboy Palace Saloon
- Or just cheer us on and remind others that creative community spaces like ours matter

If you've ever seen me light up talking about Q4C, now you know why. It's joyful, it's gritty, it's meaningful—and it's real. And we can't do it without people like you.

Thanks for being in my corner.

Sincerely,

BOOTS & BOBBINS
