

Non-Aggression Pact between the Nations of Yoahatl and Gang Shi

Preamble: This Treaty is entered into by and between the sovereign nations of Yoahatl and Gang Shi, two Toteccan powers, and hereafter referred to as the "Parties." Recognizing the importance of maintaining peace, stability, and mutual respect between our nations, the Parties hereby agree to the following terms:

Article 1: Non-Aggression

1. The Parties commit to refraining from any acts of aggression, including but not limited to military attacks, espionage, or any form of hostile intent towards each other.
2. Each Party agrees not to provide any form of support or assistance to any third party that seeks to harm the sovereignty or interests of the other Party.

Article 2: Territorial Integrity

1. The Parties reaffirm their commitment to respecting each other's sovereignty, territorial integrity, political independence, and legal jurisdiction within their respective purview.
2. The Parties agree not to engage in any actions that would compromise the sovereignty of the other Party, including any attempt to infringe upon their territorial boundaries.

Article 3: Diplomatic Relations

1. The Parties shall maintain open and respectful diplomatic channels for the purpose of communication and conflict resolution.
2. In the event of misunderstandings or disputes, the Parties shall seek peaceful and amicable solutions through dialogue and negotiation.

Article 4: Resolution of Transgressions and Termination

1. This Treaty shall enter into force upon mutual agreement and shall remain in effect indefinitely, unless terminated by written consent of both Parties or (2)
2. The Parties acknowledge that any failure to peacefully resolve disputes may lead to the termination of the non-aggression pact.

3. Either Party may withdraw from this Treaty by providing written notice to the other Party, with a grace period of one week before the termination takes effect.

Article 5: Ratification and Amendments

1. This Treaty shall be subject to ratification according to the respective legal processes of each Party.
2. Any amendments to this Treaty shall be made through mutual agreement in writing and shall enter into force upon ratification by both Parties.

In witness whereof, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective governments, have signed this Treaty.

Gwua, Holy Emperor of Gang Shi, 22nd of October, 2023

Arconis, Alcuahltl, 22nd of October, 2023