Target Standards	AZCCRS (11-12.W.3) Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. a. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events. b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. c. Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution). d. Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters. e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
Learning Goal	Complete a project around your house to give back your family.
Essential Questions	What did you learn from completing the project? What did you take away from it? What did you enjoy? How can you use this experience for future projects?
Learning Activity	Community Service Project You will need to talk to your parents and find a service project around your house that needs completed. It can be a new or old project. You will need to take photos of how it looked at the being, and picture your progress through the entire project. At the end of the project you need to submit a written document explaining: What was the type of project you completed. What did you learn during the project and after the project was over? Can you use any of the experiences from this project towards future projects? Lastly, did you enjoy the work and who you worked with? Please explain if yes or no.
