

Dear Union Debate volunteers,

I hope this letter finds you well. It has come time to officially announce the end of the Summer League. I would like to thank all of you for your willingness to support Union Debate in its endeavors. Back in June, we were a brand new organization without any reputation, and yet you still took a chance on us, so thank you for signing up. Knowing people out there were willing to sacrifice their free time to judge gave us the confidence we needed to launch this initiative.

Debate is first and foremost about letting voices be heard and you have helped us do precisely that. You helped give students across the world a new place to be heard during the summer, one outside the walls of debate camp. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Aaron Hsu
