

Abbot Vincent Taylor Library Fees Policy

In-house materials

The library no longer charges fines for library materials returned after their due date. If items are not returned, the user is responsible for paying the replacement cost of the items. Replacement costs are assessed by the library on a case-by-case basis. Other fines may be assessed as needed by the Library.

Students responsible for loss of or damage to Library property must pay for such. Those who steal or vandalize Library property will be reported to the Dean of Students. You may refer to the Belmont Abbey College handbook for policy regulations of possible judicial actions taken by the College.

Unpaid fees exceeding $1 at the end of the semester will result in a hold placed on your account. The hold will be removed once library materials are returned and fees are paid in full.

For loan periods, please see our Circulation Policy.
For more information, please see our Student and Faculty Manuals.

Interlibrary loans

Users with late or unreturned interlibrary loans may be subject to fines. These fines are determined by the lending institution, not by the Abbot Vincent Taylor Library. Unpaid interlibrary loan fines will result in a hold placed on your account.
