TRAVELLING

People began to travel ages ago. Nowadays it is not as dangerous and much more convenient. Thousands of people travel every day either on business or for pleasure. They can travel by air, by rail, by sea or by road.

Travelling by plane is the fastest and the most convenient way, but it is the most expensive too. You sit in a comfortable armchair and in a few minutes you are already above the clouds. You can sit and read a book or a magazine, look through the window to watch the passing clouds.

Travelling by train is very interesting. You can see much more interesting places of the country you are travelling through. There are also sleeping cars and dining cars which make even the longest journey enjoyable. There are different kinds of trains: passenger trains, mail trains and goods trains. Mail trains carry mail or post: letters, newspapers and magazines.

Travelling by ship is very exciting. Large ships and small river boats can visit foreign countries and different places of interest within their own country.

Travelling by car is very comfortable. You may choose your own route and stop at the places you wish.

Travelling on foot is very useful. It is often called hiking. It is very good for your health and you can stay in some place for a very long time.

Travelling by bus is very easy. We can spend time talking to other passengers on the bus.

AIRLINE TRAVELLING

There are three international airports in London: Heathrow, Stansted and Gatwick. Flights inside Britain are called domestic flights, so if you want to travel inside the country go to domestic Departures. At the airline desk you show your ticket and give them your luggage in the usual way.

There is also a fast, frequent plane service - the shuttle - between London Heathrow and Manchester, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Belfast. For services to other cities you should ask the airline or travel agents. Families, young people, students and other people can get some tickets cheaper (for train tickets ask about a "Railcard"). Students also have some special offers.

If you've arrived by plane, the next thing to do is to get your luggage. Follow the signs to Baggage Reclaim and wait until you see your flight number. Keep your luggage with you till you are asked the label.

Go through the Customs. This is the place where officials may search your luggage. There are two channels (passages) for travelers. Those who have more quantity of things than it is allowed to bring must go through the red channel. They have to pay duty (special tax). People with no things to declare go through the green channel without paying duty.
