

A Tale of Two Cities
Book 2, chapters 10-13

Our contestant for The Bachelorette / The Dating Game is none other than Lucie Manette (plus, it even rhymes!). She has not one, not two, but at least three different guys interested in marrying her!

How will she decide?

Will the prospective husbands speak directly with her, or indirectly, with people connected to her?

What will they offer?

How do they see themselves?

Are they a good match?

You get to decide!

It's time to help her out! Use a quotation or detail in each box.
