Developmental League Information

A six- week program for $129 offered at Airways and Riverside Golf Course

Class Description:

This class is designed to take your junior golfer to the next level and get them ready for the golf course, and maybe even competitive golf! Golf skills will be the focus of this class, teaching juniors form and fundamentals in addition to taking them on the course to learn about course management and the importance of short game and putting skills. Juniors will learn drills to help them practice. They will also learn rules and etiquette while on the course. Class time will be split between practice and play.

How to qualify for developmental League:

- -Must be currently enrolled in a Golf and Life Skills class at First Tee- Fresno, participating on a school team, taking lessons, or practicing on their own in addition to being enrolled in the developmental league prior to registration.
- -Must be 9-17 years of age.
- -Child must have an interest in playing competitive golf, a desire to improve past their current skill level, and be willing to work towards establishing a handicap.
- -Must sign up for Youth on Course through Riverside Golf Course.
