

SANDY ROSENTHAL

Access Speakers
Generating Influence, Awareness, & Clients

- ▶ Nonprofit Founder
- ▶ Community Leader & Mobilizer
- ▶ Author & Podcast Host
- ▶ Award-Winning Community Activist

*Sandy Rosenthal is a community mobilizer and founder of Levees.org, a national nonprofit advocating for the 62% of Americans who live in counties protected by levees. She is the author of Words Whispered in Water and a leading voice in reshaping the public understanding of Hurricane Katrina and flood risk in the United States.
For more information, visit Sandy's full profile here.*

Conversation Starters for Sandy Rosenthal

1. What was the "igniting" moment that made you decide to fight the Army Corps of Engineers?
2. What was that "big mistake" that the Army Corps made?
3. What is your shining moment in exposing the Army Corps' bad behavior?
4. If you could do it all again, what would you have done differently?
5. What did you learn about yourself after this experience?
6. What is your group working on now, 20 years after the disaster?

7.

To book Sandy for your podcast, please contact her agency:

Access Speakers
Generating Influence, Awareness, & Clients

AccessSpeakers.biz