

Yearbook Final Rising Editors 2016

For your final you will analyze your theme for next year's yearbook.

You will write at least a paragraph for each section below. You'll subtitle each section with an appropriate subtitle and each section must be well developed and clearly planned.

Sections:

1. What is your theme?
2. What does this theme mean to you?
3. How does this theme express the uniqueness of Kell High School?
4. How will you show this theme verbally (with words) throughout the book?
 - a. What font families will you use (a display font and a content font)?
 - b. What specific fonts and what size will you use for the headlines, the subheadline, the byline, the body copy, the captions, possible mods?
5. How will you show this theme visually (colors, shapes, patterns) throughout the book?
 - a. What colors will you use? How many? How will they be organized?
 - b. What graphics will you use?
 - c. What will the visual rules be for your spreads?
6. What is your design plan? What size will your grid be? How many columns per page? What will your margins be?
7. What will the tone of your book be? How will you express the tone of the book throughout the book?
8. What patterns do you want to use for the section dividers?
9. What patterns do you want to use for the senior section?
10. What should the cover look like?

Your paper must be in Arial, 11 pt, double spaced, 1 in margins (MLA Format) and be between 500 and 100 words (it should be more than one page, but less than 3).
