

I was standing at the checkout waiting to pay for my goods, when the cashier said,

"Strip down, facing me."

Making a mental note so I could complain to my local MP about this out of control security rubbish, I did just as she had instructed.

After the shrieking and hysterical remarks finally subsided, I discovered she was referring to how I should position my credit card.

I have subsequently been asked to shop elsewhere in the future but I do believe they need to make their instructions a little clearer for seniors.

I hate this getting older stuff....
