

Table 6: Evaluation Rubric – Master’s/Doctoral Program in Pharmacology and Toxicology

Ph.D. Program in Pharmacology and Toxicology, School of Medicine	Name :	Student ID :	Date :
Course Title: Ph.D. Dissertation Examination
Evaluation Topic: Whether the content of the written and oral reports meets the expected graduation standards of a general biomedical Ph.D. program			Evaluator's Signature :
Evaluation Criteria Evaluation Items	Excellent (25-23)	Good (22-20)	Fair (19-17)	Needs Improvement (16-0)	Score
Explanation of Research Background and Significance(25%)	<input type="checkbox"/> Clearly explained with strong logical coherence	<input type="checkbox"/> Clearly explained and logically sound	<input type="checkbox"/> Clearly explained and logically sound, with minor errors	<input type="checkbox"/> Poorly explained with weak or incorrect logic
Research Methods Used(25%)	<input type="checkbox"/> Excellent accuracy and appropriateness in research methods and design	<input type="checkbox"/> Good accuracy and appropriateness, with minor room for improvement	<input type="checkbox"/> Acceptable accuracy and appropriateness, but needs improvement in parts	<input type="checkbox"/> Poor accuracy and appropriateness; major revision required
Quality of Results and Reasoning(25%)	<input type="checkbox"/> Excellent rigor and richness in results; strong argumentation	<input type="checkbox"/> Good rigor and richness in results; above-average argumentation	<input type="checkbox"/> Acceptable results and reasoning, though with some flaws	<input type="checkbox"/> Poor rigor, richness, and reasoning; major deficiencies; improvement will take time
Formatting and Structure(25%)	<input type="checkbox"/> Well-structured; fluent writing; proper and complete citation formatting	<input type="checkbox"/> Well-structured and fluent writing; minor issues in citation formatting	<input type="checkbox"/> Acceptable structure and writing; citation formatting errors present	<input type="checkbox"/> Poor structure, unclear writing, major citation errors; major revision needed
Total Score
Evaluator's Comments:					