

GDC RAjampeta
Department of Zoology
Activities 2021-22

1. Name of the Activity	FIELD VISIT – FISH FARM
2. Name of the Lecturer	All the faculty of Zoology
3. Date	31-03-2022
4. Number of students participated	12
5. Number of faculty involved	03
6. Aim & Objectives – ● To know the location of the Fish farm ● To know the structure of farm. ● To know the Management practices of fish pond ● To know the different species of fishes, rearing in the fish pond. ● To know the feed management system of fishes. ● To know the cleaning and sanitation of fish farm. ● To know the usage of waste water of fish pond.
7. Brief Report : ☐ Some of the Final year students had opted the Cluster Zoology in the VI semester. In this cluster they are learn about the Aquaculture. ☐ In part of the practicals and submission of the project report on fish ponds, faculty of zoology conducted a field visit on 31-03-2022 to observe the fish ponds. ☐ Along with Aquaculture students we went Nandalur, kadapa dt. Here we observed the fish pond managed by Palle Mohan garu. ☐ The fish pond is located at kadapa road Nandalur. ☐ Management, Sri P. Mohan garu constructed a fish pond at his agriculture land in 70 cents. ☐ He is rearing different types of fishes, like Catla, Rohu, Golden fish, Mosa etc., ☐ At present they are in fingerlinks stage. ☐ Students directly observed and known the management practices of fish pond like watering, feeding, protection and waste water utilization. ☐ About this field visit students expressed more satisfaction.

Journey starts from college

Reached fish farm and heartily welcomes by P.Mohan garu, fish farmer

Layout of fish farm

Students observing fish farm

Students observing fish pond and fish feed

Organized by : Dr. N. Chandramohan, K. Saravithana, B. SUJATHA.

[illegible]

Sign of the lecturer-

Adhwa