

Take Reading on the Road

During your summer adventures and travels, whether you are heading to the dentist, playground, or pool, it is a great time to practice foundational reading skills. Here are a few fun literacy activities that promote early literacy skills.

*When you see a letter between slash marks, that represents the sound the letter makes: T says /T/.

FIND A LETTER (Skill: Letter Recognition)

Adult: Find the letter M.

Child: I see the letter M on the McDonald's sign.

Adult: Find the letter X.

Child: I see the letter X on the Exit sign.

I SEE SOMETHING (Skill: Beginning sound)

Adult: I see something that starts with the /s/ sound

Child: Is it a semi-truck?

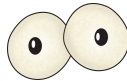

Adult: I like your thinking. It is a semi-truck. Look for something else that starts with the /s/ sound.

Child: Is it a street sign?

Adult: Yes, it is.

*Repeat*

I SEE SOMETHING (Skill: Rhyme)

Adult: I see something that rhymes with right.

Child: Is it light?

Adult: It is!

*Repeat*

ROBOT TALK (Skill: Blending sounds)

Adult: I am going to tell you a word but I am going to talk like a robot. When you know the word I'm saying, shout it out. Ready? /R/ - /OA/ - /D/

Child: Road!

Adult: Great! Here's the next one ... /G/- /A/ - /S/

Child: Gas!

*Repeat*
