AND BIRDABILITY PRESENT

 Birdability
Week 2024
October 21–27

Bird(ability) Your Way! Weekend

We encourage participants to bird in any way YOU like to bird—whether it's a “big sit,” car birding, listening for backyard birds, alone, or with a group at an accessible outing. We will share photos and sightings from these events to help build community and awareness of the incredible diversity of birders.

Download a BINGO card on the website and tag us @birdability to share your birding experience!
