1. Introduction

The introduction should briefly place the study in a broad context and highlight why it is important. It should define the purpose of the work and its significance. The current state of the research field should be reviewed carefully, and key publications cited. Please highlight controversial and diverging hypotheses when necessary. Finally, briefly mention the main aim of the work and highlight the principal conclusions. As far as possible, please keep the introduction comprehensible to scientists outside your field of research.

The manuscript written uses Cambria (12 pt) with a length of 4,000-5,000 words. The following points are set by Telukawur Journal of Legal Community Empowerment -template file and must be followed to avoid problems in the production of your journal article: (page size: European A4; top-margin: 4 cm; bottom-margin: 2.7 cm; left- and right-margin: 2.5 cm; text is single-spaced, not double-spaced; all pages are portrait orientation).

Citation is done in the style of the American Psychological Association 7th Edition using Mendeley's Reference Manager. An example of citation can be seen as follows (He et al., 2020) or (Honey, 2011)

2. Method

Method: describes the methods used to carry out research / community service. Examples of methods: a) community-based participatory research (CBPR), a collaborative approach that involves community members as equal partners in the research process, enhancing the relevance of services offered and ensuring that they align with the specific needs of the community; b) community organizing, is another effective method employed in community service and health initiatives; c) Trainings and workshops, engaging local communities in skill-building activities enables them to address specific issues within their context effectively; d) strategies for utilizing technology, interactive platforms, including social media and mobile applications, can foster participation and engagement within communities by promoting transparency and facilitating communication.

Author can use other methods that are also commonly used. In the chapter name (h1), write as a Research Method or Method of Devotion, according to the conditions of the manuscript.

3. Result

3.1 Another example subsection heading

The results obtained from the research must be supported by sufficient data. The research results and the discovery must be the answers, or the research hypothesis stated previously in the introduction part.

Organise the main text using section headings, and include any equations, figures, tables, lists etc. Following main headings, it allows the authors to use and subsection heading and sub-sub headings. Figures and tables must be placed close to where they are mentioned in the text, not all together at the end of the article. All figures and tables must have a caption. The template file includes placeholder text boxes for a figure and a table. Replace the placeholder information following the instructions in the template. Copy and paste the text boxes to add more tables or figures. Insert equations and inline math expressions using MathType if available. Otherwise use the default Word equation editor. Equations that are converted to images are not permitted. Note that the Word auto-recover file will automatically convert equations to images.

4. Discussion

Pada bagian Diskusi, penulis diharapkan untuk menjelaskan hasil dari kegiatan atau penelitian. Bagian ini tidak boleh sekadar mengulang hasil, melainkan harus menafsirkan dan merefleksikan hasil tersebut sesuai dengan tujuan dan harapan awal program.

4. Conclusion

Table 1. Replace this text with the table caption. Adapt the template table below or delete it and add a new table using either Insert – Table or by pasting from another document. Copy and paste the whole text box to add more tables. Place tables close to where they are cited in the text.
[a] Table footnote.

The conclusion should be brief, consisting of 1-2 paragraphs, and directly address the research objectives. It should provide a clear, concise summary without repeating the abstract or merely restating the results. The Results and Discussion section should state the findings and arrange them in a logical sequence, explains and evaluates what you found and making an argument in support of your overall conclusion.

Instead, offer insights into the potential applications or suggestions stemming from the research findings.

References

The references is compiled using the Mendeley or Zetero reference application with the American Psychological Association 7th Edition. Referral sources should provide 80% of journal articles International and National, proceedings, or research results from the last five years.
