

The Spy Who Came in From the Cold Response Paper Ideas

Writing a response paper is your opportunity to display the ability to think about a theme that has come up in our class during the week. Response papers are to be two pages, typed, 12 point Times New Roman font. Below are some themes and potential ideas for you to consider when writing your response paper. Your paper does not have to address any of the themes below; this is just a handful of possible responses.

Response Paper Due: _____

Ideas:

- A Film Without Heroes or Good Guys
- The Portrayal of Spies/Espionage in Movies (or stories)
- Romanticizing Espionage
- The Value of Spies and Covert Action
- Plots to Films/Stories that are too Complex to Understand
- Pacing of the Film as a Part of the Narrative

The Spy Who Came in From the Cold Response Paper Ideas

Writing a response paper is your opportunity to display the ability to think about a theme that has come up in our class during the week. Response papers are to be two pages, typed, 12 point Times New Roman font. Below are some themes and potential ideas for you to consider when writing your response paper. Your paper does not have to address any of the themes below; this is just a handful of possible responses.

Response Paper Due: _____

Ideas:

- A Film Without Heroes or Good Guys
- The Portrayal of Spies/Espionage in Movies (or stories)
- Romanticizing Espionage
- The Value of Spies and Covert Action
- Plots to Films/Stories that are too Complex to Understand
- Pacing of the Film as a Part of the Narrative