

Youth Pastoral Intern/Youth Director

Raleigh, NC | $10,000-20,000/year | 10-20 Hours/Week

Description: Midtown Community Church is a growing congregation in Raleigh, NC focused on reaching and discipling people in the love and work of Jesus. As our church family grows, we are excited to invest in the spiritual formation of our middle and high school students.

We are seeking a Youth Director/Pastoral Intern of Youth who is passionate about discipling students and exploring a calling to pastoral ministry. This position provides real ministry leadership experience, pastoral mentoring, and the opportunity to help build and shape a youth ministry in a healthy and growing church community.

For those pursuing ordination in the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), this role can also help fulfill the necessary internship requirements. There is also possibility of this turning into a full-time role in the near future if associated with other ministry needs in the church.

What You'll Do:

Disciple Students

- Lead bi-weekly Sunday night youth meetings
- Oversee bi-weekly boys and girls discipleship groups
- Coordinate overnight retreat for youth twice/year
- Invest relationally in students through one-on-one conversations and attending activities
- Encourage youth involvement in the overall service/work of the church

Build a Healthy Youth Ministry

- Oversee adult volunteer based of 2-4 people, and recruit additional volunteers as needed
- Encourage a culture of relational evangelism among students
- Facilitate mentoring relationships between students and adult members of the church
- Partner with parents in the spiritual development of their students through prayer and discipleship opportunities
- Coordinate two overnight retreats a year and two service/mission opportunities a year

General Duties

- Meet with the Head Pastor twice a month for mentorship and development
- Participate in monthly staff meetings and staff lunches
- Continue developing personal spiritual health and leadership skills

Optional Pastoral Internship Opportunities

- Attend monthly session meetings
- Preach 1-2 times/year
- Worship Service: Lead Call to Worship/Prayer/Percussion on worship team
- Gaining exposure to broader pastoral ministry in the local church

What We're Looking For:

- Loves Jesus and cares deeply about students
- Is relational and enjoys investing in young people
- Is teachable and eager to grow in ministry leadership
- Is interested in pastoral ministry or youth ministry long-term

*

Interested?

Learn more about Midtown at:

www.midtown-church.org

To apply or ask questions, please contact:

Lindsey Williams

Head Pastor

lindsey@midtown-church.org