

US-RSE Rapid Interview Instructions

We want to know more about the members of the US-RSE! The US-RSE Outreach Working Group is collecting rapid interviews from its members for use at events such as Supercomputing, eScience, etc. If you are interested in submitting a rapid interview, please follow these instructions:

1. Use a recording program of your choice to capture video and audio of yourself.
2. Pull up the questions document.
3. Record your answer to each outer bullet point. Try to keep answers brief, about 30 seconds each.
4. Name the file
 - a. FamilyName_GivenName_Question.*
 - b. With the following mapping from full question to suffix:
 - i. "Tell us about you..." -> About_Me
 - ii. "What are you working on right now..." -> Current_Work
 - iii. "How did you hear about RSEs and US-RSE?" -> How_USRSE
 - iv. "Why did you join the US-RSE?" -> Why_USRSE
 - v. "Describe your work as an RSE or RSE ally in one sentence." -> Describe_Work
 - vi. "Where would you like to see the RSE profession in 10 years?" -> Ten_Years
 - c. Example:
 - i. Teves_Joshua_About_Me.mov would be a clip from Joshua Teves answering the question, "Tell us about you..." with all sub-questions.
5. In the Google Drive path US-RSE Outreach Materials > New Submissions > Rapid Interviews, make a folder with your family name, and place all recording files there.
6. Fill out the US-RSE Rapid Interview Consent Form.
7. Thanks for submitting a video!
