

Ch 3 Book Mark

LEVEL 1

- What skills does Jack demonstrate in the opening of this chapter?
- Why is Ralph frustrated?
- What separates Simon from the other boys?
- Describe the relationship between Ralph and Jack.

LEVEL 2

- Why is the signal fire more important to Ralph than to the others?
- How has the society of the boys developed? Who is serving in what roles?
- What connects Jack to the littluns?
- What clues are there to suggest that order is beginning to break down?

LEVEL 3

- What does the imagery and diction in the hunting scene suggest about Jack?
- How is the boys' relationship with the island changing?
- How could the growing conflict between Ralph and Jack impact the rest of the story?
- How does the conflict in the story engage the reader?

*Diction: The style of speaking or writing determined by the choice of words by a speaker or a writer (e.g.: formal, informal, poetic, lyrical, terse, staccato)

Ch 3 Book Mark

LEVEL 1

- What skills does Jack demonstrate in the opening of this chapter?
- Why is Ralph frustrated?
- What separates Simon from the other boys?
- Describe the relationship between Ralph and Jack.

LEVEL 2

- Why is the signal fire more important to Ralph than to the others?
- How has the society of the boys developed? Who is serving in what roles?
- What connects Jack to the littluns?
- What clues are there to suggest that order is beginning to break down?

LEVEL 3

- What does the imagery and diction in the hunting scene suggest about Jack?
- How is the boys' relationship with the island changing?
- How could the growing conflict between Ralph and Jack impact the rest of the story?

- How does the conflict in the story engage the reader?

*Diction: The style of speaking or writing determined by the choice of words by a speaker or a writer (e.g.: formal, informal, poetic, lyrical, terse, staccato)

Ch 3 Book Mark

LEVEL 1

- What skills does Jack demonstrate in the opening of this chapter?
- Why is Ralph frustrated?
- What separates Simon from the other boys?
- Describe the relationship between Ralph and Jack.

LEVEL 2

- Why is the signal fire more important to Ralph than to the others?
- How has the society of the boys developed? Who is serving in what roles?
- What connects Jack to the littluns?
- What clues are there to suggest that order is beginning to break down?

LEVEL 3

- What does the imagery and diction in the hunting scene suggest about Jack?
- How is the boys' relationship with the island changing?
- How could the growing conflict between Ralph and Jack impact the rest of the story?
- How does the conflict in the story engage the reader?

*Diction: The style of speaking or writing determined by the choice of words by a speaker or a writer (e.g.: formal, informal, poetic, lyrical, terse, staccato)