5. Discussion:

a. A CS member attended First-year student week; do we want to try to advertise the minor at any similar spring events? Does anyone know of any?

b. Update on April Earth Week Planning

From last meeting: subcommittee met and decided to focus on panel discussion or interested faculty members (research and/or pedagogy) and exhibit in the library relating to Earth Week (notes from subcommittee meeting:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1CUaBo9v1OWZwNGtr-GAtZ6skcDUfscL6UseVi98CsuE/edit; coordinate with other campus groups for events during Earth Week. Compile list for potential faculty members for panel discussion; other ideas for Earth Week?

Panel to look at faculty already leading in this area and tying it into their coursework - building panels around research, teaching, sustainability overlays, and sustainability minor.

Update on Panel: Prof. Garberisi got back to me about her research group; I am waiting to hear if members of the group are interested in being on the panel.

Prof Below suggested two ideas for panel.

Did anyone else hear back?

Library Libguide/exhibits featuring sustainability & climate/environmental justice resources and students work if possible from course with overlay or sustainability theme; also advertise sustainability minor.

Here is a doc to plan a resource guide for students

Note: The library has other exhibits planned, but I can have one exhibit case, so I will focus on the Minor.

b. Closing the loop on ILO Assessment of Sustainability

The chair wrote a brief report which has been sent to ILO Subcommittee

Suggestion from last meeting: Use the rubric to organize a resource page for faculty teaching sustainability related or overlay courses.

The chair sent a summary of ideas we have discussed to Stephanie to include in their closing the loop document.

We could use the Libguide resources, and also develop a training session via faculty development in spring? Would a subcommittee work for this?

- e. Gathering academic statistics on sustainability for csueb AASHE report. (still in process)
- 6. Adjournment
