

The Biggest Journey of My Life

Hi! My name is Gabe and I am 9 years old. For this whole week I am investigating a secret hidden temple. So let's get started!

I'm flying with my friends Michael and Angela to the Mountains of Harwood. I put on a parachute and jump out of the plane and I shout THIS IS THE BEST! I land kind of roughly on the mountain and I start hiking.

After 3 miles I get stopped by a volcano, it is huge. Bigger than you can imagine! I don't know how to get across. But I brought some tools. I have a rope, gun and whip and grappling hook.

I choose my grappling hook. I get it out and shoot. It sails across the lava pit to the other side and it clings on to a rock. I fling to the other side. I made it across!

I slowly walk into the temple. It's dark and muggy, but I have a flashlight so I'm good. There are booby traps everywhere. Luckily, I avoid all of them. It is lined with statues of people and on the ground there's ancient Egyptian writing in the shapes of squares. I find a rock and throw it on one of the squares. Something popped up fast. Whoosh! It is a spear! If that was me that would have gone up my...never mind.

I look around and see a word written on the ceiling and ancient writing in squares on the floor. The word on the ceiling says 'exit.' I start to go left, then right, another left, and then forward. I made it to the other side without any mistakes.

I start walking a bit more. I look for the gold, but I can't see it so I trip over some thing and fall over. I hit my nose on the ground oh! I heard something TICK, I heard it again WHISPER WHISPER, I hear them. I start to get dizzy and fall asleep. All of a sudden, I wake up. I'm surrounded by gnomes. I wait until the gnomes are not looking and then I get up and start running. I guess they were the guards of the temple. Well, they were not so good at that job.

I start walking a little farther. O.M.G! Money! Coins! There's even a Lambo! I start stuffing all of the money and coins into my pockets. I look around to see how to get out. All I see is places where all the treasure was and two candles holders placed into the wall. Wait one of them looks weird. I go over and pull it. Suddenly the ground starts to rumble. The wall in front of me falls. I get in the Lambo and race out. I'm out! All of the sudden the temple explodes and I drive away like nothing happened! THE END.
