

GED 529 Consultation Sign Up Sheet

April 2025

Greetings.

As our GED 529: Personalized Learning class heads toward its conclusion, I want to offer the opportunity to meet 1x1 to discuss any questions, clarifications or to exchange feedback related to class activities. At this time, I have planned for the week of April 24th to be our second independent learning session. I will have that prepared ahead of time and will review both the final presentation criteria and the independent learning menu prior to the 24th.

Our final class meeting will be Thursday, May 1st. Participants will give their final presentation, including a review of their action research, complete a course feedback form and together we will celebrate the completion of the course.

If you would like to meet, don't hesitate to sign up.... Otherwise, enjoy the week off.

The consultation will use the regular Zoom link that is used for weekly classes. Thank you very much for your hard work and effort.
