

JOB DESCRIPTION FOR NURSES

-Adhere to the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) code of Practice, Skills for Health and Skills for Care, Department of Health DH

-Provide care to patients and residents based on their care plan as outlined by the Service User's Doctor

-Accurately monitor and record observations on patients' conditions

- Maintain accurate records of resident's care, financial procedures, and medication administration

- Identify care planning needs

- Carry out risk assessments

- Record patients' vital signs and medical information

- Re-evaluate patient care plan as conditions change

- Consult and coordinate with other healthcare team members

- Direct or supervise less experienced nursing staff

- Monitor patients' diet and exercise

- Prepare patients and assist with treatments, surgery, or exams as needed

- Manage stocks of supplies

-Ensure storage and disposal of medication is carried out according to policy

- Participate in clinical improvements and offer ideas on clinical and non-clinical policies

- Assist with the investigation of complaints by patients or family members

- Maintain continuing education and licensing requirements

- Report any issues that arose during each shift

- Assist with personal care to the residents in a nursing or residential care home