

Note: All parts of this agenda may not be relevant or needed for your planning but are provided as examples and prompts for thinking/planning.

Agenda Template

Meeting Purpose	This space provides a place where
Outcomes	<ul> <li>Participants will/can [understand/recognize/describe/articulate/etc.]</li> <li>Examples:         <ul> <li>Participants will recognize that microaggressions can be unintentional actions and can occur toward folks they accept and support.</li> <li>Participants can describe what an accountability space looks, sounds, and feels like.</li> <li>Participants can articulate how accountability spaces are linked to cultures of accountability.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Pre-Readings or Prep Materials

Time	Agenda Item
1:00-1:15pm Welcome	Welcome, Connection Time, Agenda Overview, and Framing <ul> <li>Welcome &amp; Connection Time</li> <li>Introductions, etc.</li> </ul> <li>Framing  <ul> <li>This is information about why you're doing the meeting, what it's purpose is, and a review of outcomes</li> </ul> </li> <li>Agenda Overview  <ul> <li>Overview of the sections you will move through</li> </ul> </li> <li>Note that you may need more than 15 minutes depending on the meeting.</li>
1:15-1:25pm Agreements	First Topic/Activity  ■ Information about topic or activity  □ Link any required resources such as Jamboards

1:25-1:35pm Reflection	● Information about topic or activity  ○ Provide key questions if participants will need to answer them
2:25-2:30 Wrap-Up	<ul> <li>Wrap-up and Gratitude</li> <li>Wrap-up by restating any next steps or key items that came from the meeting</li> </ul>

Note-Taking Template

When cleaning up notes after a meeting in preparation of sharing with the group, highlight next steps/actions, underline any needs, and bold information that participants should notice when reviewing notes. Use the agenda as a base template for taking notes so that your notes can be read by others in context.

Time	Agenda Item
1:00-1:15pm Welcome	<ul> <li>Welcome, Connection Time, Agenda Overview, and Framing         <ul> <li>○ Welcome &amp; Connection Time</li> <li>○ Introductions, etc.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Framing         <ul> <li>○ This is information about why you're doing the meeting, what it's purpose is, and a review of outcomes</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Agenda Overview         <ul> <li>○ Overview of the sections you will move through</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	Note that you may need more than 15 minutes depending on the meeting.
1:15-1:25pm Agreements	First Topic/Activity  ■ Information about topic or activity  □ Link any required resources such as Jamboards
	Notes:  - Note any key points, questions, sticky issues, or next steps in notes - Link any materials such as slides or Jamboards after the meeting - Clean up the notes to ensure accuracy and readability before sending them to a group - Use the key above this template for how to code notes
1:25-1:35pm	Second Topic/Activity

Reflection	<ul> <li>Information about topic or activity         <ul> <li>Provide key questions if participants will need to answer them</li> </ul> </li> <li>Notes:         <ul> <li>-</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
2:25-2:30 Wrap-Up	<ul> <li>Wrap-up and Gratitude</li> <li>Wrap-up by restating any next steps or key items that came from the meeting</li> </ul>