

Here is what we know of Pete Newman's criminal behavior. On Friday, March 27th, 2009, we received a call from Chris Cooper (one of Kanakuk's directors) telling us that Pete had been fired from Kanakuk. He explained to us that Pete Newman had admitted to inappropriate sexual conduct with several children, including our son, [REDACTED]. It was told to us that Kanakuk first became aware there was an issue when a "hotline" was called by a 19 year old boy, reporting Pete for inappropriate sexual contact with him. When Joe White and the directors confronted Pete with this information, this is when he admitted it was true, and informed them of the other children. Pete told the Kanakuk directors that he would have discussions with these children regarding their "purity" and told them if they wanted to remain "pure," or if they ever were tempted to engage in sexual activity outside of marriage, that the best way to handle that would be masturbation. He masturbated himself in their presence, and then would invite them to mutually masturbate.