

Q4 Week 16 & 17 homework: The French Revolution

Instructions:

Step one—choose an article in the list below from Alphahistory.com. Read the article, making note of important facts/information as you read.

- The Committee of Public Safety (use this link)
- The Reign of Terror (use this link)
- The Fall of Robespierre (use this link)
- The Thermidorian Reaction (use this link)

Step two—Write a paragraph summarizing the topic. Your summary should be at least 7-9 sentences.

Step Three—You will be assigned the same homework over the next two weeks. Each homeday, choose a different topic from the list above and write a paragraph over each topic until you have finished learning about the four topics above. Each time you research and write, your paragraph should be at least 7-9 sentences minimum, and should summarize what you learned. You will turn in two summary paragraphs on 5/2, and two summary paragraphs on 5/9.

Your papers should be in the standard font (ie: Arial or Times New Roman) and should be no larger than 12pt. Do not add additional spacing between paragraphs (double spacing is okay, but no additional spacing to add length). You may not use AI to assist you.

Failure to follow instructions will result in a loss of points. IE: you will not get an A if you don't follow the instructions.
