Hey guys, it's been a while since I've posted anything on that account, so I'm gonna give an update on what has been happening. The reason as to why I haven't been doing anything on it is because I genuinely kind of forgot about it. I won't be posting anything new on that account and also I have abandoned my Scratch account, so nothing will be posted there either. But, I have recently created a youtube account.

On my YT I'll mainly be posting FNF related stuff and other music stuff. I don't plan to do anything really special there.

As for Gamejolt, I might just end up making a completely new account to have a fresh start on things, and I will be posting stuff like updates on my Minecraft Mods, FNF Stuff, etc.

Also stuff like the FNAF Scratch Remake, WOTW: Martian Domination, the Rainbow Friends MC mod (holy crud why was I into that BRAINROT), and other stuff I was working on back then is completely scrapped as I have abandoned that account.

That's gonna be all I have to say here, until next time (in which I get a new account).

Also looking back at that account I was CRINGE as HECK!

(Reason why this is a DOC is because the entire thing couldn't be put into the Gamejolt post)
