

(START WITH A GOOD STATEMENT FROM THE COACH WITH A POST-SEASON INTERVIEW)

(OPENING MONTAGE: SLOW-MOTION SHOTS OF LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONSHIP LOSS—PLAYERS WALKING OFF THE FIELD, THE SCOREBOARD SHOWING CORONADO'S VICTORY. FADES INTO TRAINING SHOTS FROM THIS SEASON, DRILLS UNDER STADIUM LIGHTS.)

One year ago, Arbor View stood yards away from the top, only to watch Coronado snatch the glory away. A season defined by dominance ended in heartbreak. The Aggies never lost their determination—just shifted it into something sharper. And now the only thing that matters... is redemption.

(FAST-PACED GAME FOOTAGE FROM EARLY IN THE SEASON—WINS OVER LAS VEGAS AND LEGACY, AGGRESSIVE DEFENSIVE STOPS, EXPLOSIVE OFFENSIVE PLAYS.)

The journey back began with change. A new coaching staff. A new system. A new identity. ~~Everything was faster. Louder. Smarter.~~ The Aggies had to adjust—learning to trust the process, play fast, think faster, and execute with discipline. Early wins showed flashes of what was possible—moments where it clicked. But nothing came easily. Every step forward came with lessons. Every mistake had a price.

(LOSSES AGAINST VIRGIN VALLEY, BISHOP GORMAN, AND SHADOW RIDGE—MAINLY DURING THE TOURNAMENT AND HOW THAT IMPACTED THE TEAM.)

Then came the pre-season tournament. And with it—reality. Losses to Virgin Valley, Bishop Gorman, and Shadow Ridge exposed cracks in the foundation. Missed tackles. Dropped balls. Silent sidelines. The weight of expectations started pressing down. For the first time, they looked unsure. That's when the coaches stepped in. Not with schemes, but with reminders. That championship teams don't just dominate... they evolve.

And Arbor View stood their ground. The second half of the season was different. The noise quieted. The game slowed down. They found their rhythm. The defense locked in—disruptive and disciplined. The offense? Unstoppable. The Aggies began overwhelming teams with pace, power, and precision. With every snap, their identity took shape. With every win, confidence surged. Led by a relentless core—Jayda Emil, Danielle Morales, and Kaylinn Foss—the Aggies started looking like contenders again. Not just chasing redemption... but ready to seize it.

(JANUARY 17—REMATCH WITH CORONADO. FAST EDITS OF BIG PLAYS, TENSE MOMENTS, THEN THE FINAL WHISTLE AND CELEBRATION)

The team was back at their top form, looking unstoppable to other teams, but the hardest matchup was yet to come. January 17th. A game that was circled on every calendar: Arbor View vs. Coronado. The rematch, with both teams at the apex of their strength. The Aggies came into the matchup undefeated in league play and hungry for revenge after the last-minute state title loss from the year before. This time, Arbor View didn't blink as they made a statement against the Cougars on their home field, running away with a 25-19 victory and proving to the rest of the league that the Aggies were back and ready to win.

(FOOTAGE OF TEAM MEETINGS, COACHES ON THE WHITEBOARD, PLAYOFF BRACKETS.)

But beating Coronado? It wasn't enough. The real test was yet to come. The playoffs. Where the pressure separates the top teams from everyone else."

(REGULAR-SEASON FINALE VS. SOUTHEAST CAREER TECH—FINAL WHISTLE, TEAM CELEBRATING.)

With a dominant finish, the Aggies secured the 1-seed... and with it, a first-round bye. But rest? That wasn't an option. Every practice mattered, polishing the small details, making sure nothing got in their way

(PLAYOFF GAME VS. LEGACY—SHOTS OF TOUCHDOWNS, DEFENSIVE PLAYS, FINAL SCORE: 53-15.)

Legacy put up a fight, but in the end, never stood a chance, falling to a dominant Aggies performance in which they put up 50+ points for the first time all season in a 53-15 victory

(PLAYOFF GAME VS. MOJAVE—INTENSE GAME FOOTAGE, FINAL SCORE: 30-12.)

In their toughest postseason test yet, the Aggies welcomed the Mojave Rattlers to their home turf. In the first half, the Aggies struggled to move the ball as Mojave's defense came with a game plan focused on shutting down the team's strengths. However, despite taking an early lead, the Rattlers would eventually succumb to Arbor's overwhelming rushing attack spearheaded by Dani Morales. In the end, the Aggies would prevail, winning 30-12 and heading to their second straight state title tilt.

(DIFFERENT CLIPS FROM INTERVIEWS, MIC'D UP MOMENTS FROM THE COACH, AND MAKE IT IMPACTFUL WITH MUSIC, MAKE IT SEEM LIKE THIS IS THE MOMENT)

The Aggies are determined to start it off strong. They knew that scoring first would give them the advantage they needed

(A COUPLE OF THE FIRST PLAYS OF THE GAME)

The Aggies pushed through the drive first after winning the toss. They pushed forward with all their might, but in the end, the Aggies were forced to hand the ball over.

(DEFENSIVE PLAYS AND FOOTHILL SCORING FIRST)

Behind the ball, the Aggies kept the pressure for the rest of the drive. Forcing the offense to settle for a few yards a play. In the end, the Falcons pushed up the field and into the endzone. The Falcons have started with the lead.

(CLIPS OF THE AGGIES COMING BACK)

But the Aggies were not willing to stop there; every single play, every single down, the ladies kept composed and scored, obtaining a lead in the second quarter, 7-6.

(FIGHTING TIRELESSLY PLAYS, PROBABLY SOME DIVING FLAG PULLS)

Later on in the game, both teams had many runs at scoring, but both defenses were on lock, not allowing each other to gain yards on the field.

(JUST SOME COACHING STUFF)

Despite the hard-fought battle between the defenses. A little misstep in the defense caused Foothill to gain a lead early in the second quarter. 12-7, the Falcons were back on top

(ROUGH AND FIGHTING PLAYS FOR THE AGGIES)

But the Aggies were not going to end the half being down; they pushed down the field, and with 4 minutes remaining, they scored, going into the half up 14-12

(HALFTIME TALKS, LET THIS RUN OUT A BIT, USE DIFFERENT INTERVIEW CLIPS WHERE WE GO THROUGH THEIR MINDSET)

They knew what was on the line and gave it their all. Throughout the half, the ladies pushed past their limits. Not allowing foothill to gain the lead.

(GOOD PLAYS ON THE BALL, BUT THEN THE AGGIES ARE FALLING)

The Aggies would not give up, but neither were the Falcons, pushing up the field with the game on the line.

(LAST PLAY FOR THE FALCONS)

4th and goal from the 1-yard line, this play would decide who wins the state championship. The ball was snapped, the Falcons ran their routes, the Aggies covered their zones, but a little misstep led the Falcons to be open at the corner. The Falcons have scored with only 1 minute remaining in the game.

(LAST PLAYS OF THE GAME)

A last-chance, desperation drive was not enough. As the clock struck 0, the Aggies found themselves once again watching as another team celebrated a championship.

(END OF THE GAME AND FUN MOMENTS)

Despite the loss, the Aggies are proud of what they have accomplished while also making friends and family on the way. Playing at Allegiant Stadium was a highlight of their career that they took in stride. The Aggies made history and, in the end, cemented their legacy at Arbor View.
