It's Halloween night and the moon is full. Emma, Tom, and Lucy are at a big Halloween party at school. The classroom looks amazing — there are pumpkins, candles, and paper bats hanging from the ceiling. The walls are covered with spider webs and scary posters. Everyone is wearing a costume.

Emma is a witch. She has got a long black dress, a tall pointed hat, and a broom. Her face is green and she has got a fake wart on her nose. Tom is a vampire. He has got a black cape, red eyes, and very sharp white teeth. He loves pretending to drink tomato juice.

Lucy is a ghost with a white sheet and a mask that glows in the dark.

The children play “apple bobbing,” dance to Halloween songs, and tell spooky stories. They eat pumpkin cookies and chocolate spiders. Emma and her friends laugh a lot, but sometimes they feel a little scared when the lights go out. At the end of the evening, they all shout, “Happy Halloween!” and take a big group photo. It's the best night of the year!
