

Privacy policy

PhotoDupFinder App for iOS

This Privacy Policy describes the privacy practices of PhotoDupFinder in connection with the mobile application PhotoDupFinder (“Application”) for iOS that was created by Andrei Isac.

This privacy policy was last updated on March 4, 2022. The privacy policy may change from time to time for any reason. If any change will be made to the policy, it will clearly be stated on the website or application.

Short summary

The application does not store or ask for any user personal data or information.

Information collected and usage

The Application does not collect or transmit any personal information about the user.

Location services

The Application does not use or collect any data related to location.

User data view

Nothing to view since the Application does not collect user data.

Personal information sharing

The Application does not share any data. No data is collected about the user

Advertising companies data collection

The Application does not collect any data thus nothing is shared and there is no advertisement inside the application.

Vendors or analytics providers

The Application does not use such vendors or providers and it does not collect any personal data of the user.

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

No data is gathered from children under the age of 13. (The application does not store or ask for user personal data)