

ohkuart Commissions TOS

Please read this before submitting your commission request!

Payment:

- All prices on the commission sheet are displayed in USD.
- Payment must be done via Hipolink or Easystart (currently available methods to me) I will not accept payments via other transfer services as I am unable to do so.
- Payment must be done during the sketching phase. I will not proceed to lineart/coloring until it is paid for.
- Due to the nature of the payment process I do not offer partial refunds. If the artwork has been fully completed I will not offer a refund in any case. If it hasn't been completed yet, you can discuss with me how to proceed with a refund. Normally it has to be done via charging back through your bank/Paypal/etc.
- Depending on the queue and my personal life circumstances the artwork does not have a set deadline and may take from 2 weeks to several months to complete. If you have a specific deadline, please let me know.
- Base price may increase depending on the complexity of the piece.

Allowed Content:

- Content I will draw includes: any kind of biped (humans and anthros alike), any kind of prop or background element (its complexity might influence the price), all ranges of clothing (including those like underwear and speedos) and other sensitive content such as blood, weapons or alcohol.
- Whether I will draw nudity depends on many factors and will have to be discussed beforehand.
- Content I will NOT draw includes (but is not limited to): fetish art (macro, weight gain/feeding, hyper, etc., for example), art that could be considered hateful or offensive, overly complicated designs like mecha, and extreme gore.
- I reserve the right to deny any request that makes me personally uncomfortable, regardless of whether it's included in the categories above or not. If you are unsure about a certain request, please discuss it with me.

Updates:

- I send updates as I work on the piece, it will depend on the queue and my personal life circumstances. Please try to answer my updates as soon as possible to avoid delaying the process. If you require an update, message me on my available social media, preferably through the means you've originally contacted me. (Twitter/X, Discord, Bsky, Telegram)

- After the final sketch is done and I begin to work on lineart I will no longer accept significant revisions (such as changes in pose or additional elements), so please make sure to check if everything is fine in the final sketch.

Usage:

- When the commission is finished, I will send you one .png file for every variant of the piece in full resolution via email or google Drive. Please tell me if you want it in other formats such as .jpg, or .psd
- The commission will be for personal use and you will be allowed to post it on any social media or website/use it as a banner/pfp, given there's proper credit (preferably a link to my Twitter/Bluesky).
- You are not allowed to make money off the piece or give it any kind of commercial use without discussing it with me beforehand.
- In the same way, I reserve the right to post any piece / original design to my own social media (watermarked and with a lower resolution) and use it on my portfolio. Credit to you and/or your social media will be properly given as well.
