

The Chicken Saves the World

Reuben listened to the chats of customers while cooking chicken. "This vendor's chicken is so delicious that I can't stop eating," one customer said. "Really. His chicken tastes much better than those of luxurious restaurants," another customer said. "Look! Look! Look at the sky!" The customer's chicken fell on the ground. "Oh My God! The Moon is red." "A tragedy is going to happen," one customer murmured.

Hearing this unpleasant prediction, all of them suddenly became quiet, and then they went home in a bad mood.

A few days later. The same customers got together to eat chicken at Reuben's stand. "What improper remarks you made!" Ian said. "What's wrong?" Ray asked. "Don't you know? Someone has been missing every day since then. And my friend's son has disappeared, too!" Ian said. "Didn't your friend call the police?" Ray requested. "He did, but the police couldn't find any clues," Ian said. "That's too scary. I think that we should eat some chicken first to relax." "That right. This chicken can keep my fear away."

In the meanwhile, in the basement of the house at the edge of the Earth, there were a group of monsters enjoying their delicious food.

"Humans are such a tasty food."

"But their meat is so little that it's barely enough for us to eat."

"It's all because of the weird ability of this house that we can only catch one human per day."

"It's okay, my superpower can find out how to crack the defense of this house."

"Everyone just waits for me!"

After a while.....

"I sense that we need to kill the man named Reuben"

At this time, Reuben was cooking his chicken specialty. As soon as Reuben finished cooking, he disappeared from the stand with the chicken, and then he saw a group of monsters in the basement. The monsters opened their mouths and slobbered and exposed their sharp teeth. They discussed how to eat Reuben, simmer, broil, or fry, etc. But one of the monsters couldn't bear any longer and rushed toward Reuben

"Stop! Actually, I also eat human, so I know the best way to cook human. See what I just made," Reuben said.

Reuben showed the chicken on his hand to monsters. Reuben's body was shaking violently because he deceived the monsters. Reuben knew that if he didn't do this, he would be eaten immediately. And the monsters ate the chicken quickly.

"Gee! This is actually better than the raw meat."

"Of course! Cooking is my profession."

"What a pity! We have to kill you to crack the power of this house. Bye Bye now."

"Wait! I still have one of the specialty dishes that you haven't eaten yet."

The monsters thought that Reuben couldn't run away anyway. What they need to do was simply catch him again the next day. Therefore, they let Reuben go home to prepare the meal.

"Don't worry, I will make the food that you will never forget," Reuben said.

One day later, the monsters caught him again. As soon as they saw the food Reuben prepared, they swallowed up it in a hurry.

Reuben waited for a while.

Suddenly, after the monsters tried the chicken, they were totally unable to remember things, and they even forgot who they were. One possible reason was that the chicken deeply relaxed their body and put them into a state of hypnosis. But the truth was that Reuben added some sleeping pills into the chicken. No matter what, the monsters fell into an eternal dream with peace of mind.
